Since I last wrote you, two new candidates for congressional honors have been brought to the front by their friends in this district, to-wit: Colonel W. H. Fitzgerald, of Tallshatchie, and Hon. Dan B. Wright, of Tallshatchie, and Hon. Dan B. Wright, of Tippah. The latter was a member of congress in ante believe the set of congress in ante believe time days, and is well known, but there does not seem to be a very strong disposition to take up old politicians in these later times, and I presume it will hardly be done where there is so much other good material. Colonel Fitzgerald is good material. Colonel Fitzgerald is who recall his brilliant address before the M'Rae, now a resident of Tennessee, but at present a member of the State third national Sunday-school convensenate for a four year's term, a don at Jaynes's hall, in Philadelphia, in ablest in all her history.
